Clarity, Loving Kindness & Humility in the Practice of Sandplay

June 2020

Social Media Expert Needed

AST is reaching out to find a volunteer member who will monitor, create, and respond to social media promotions. Must be creative and willing to commit time several times each week to keep our sites active. If you are interested, contact rharriet@gmail.com.

AST Website Getting a Fresh Look

AST is in the process of updating the website for a new and fresh look. It will be launching soon with expanded information and fresh ideas for shorter, less expensive, in-depth topics to increase your knowledge of Sandplay. See the upcoming July newsletter for launch dates.

Engaging our Members

AST has the most wonderful members of any Sandplay organization. We are proud of the international membership and the quality of practitioners who use Sandplay in their practices. We invite you to submit short writings or your work, favorite symbol, a poem or reflection. These will be submitted to and printed in the newsletter. We also will begin a "spotlight" feature of members who choose to participate. Send a brief 3-5 sentence description of your work, location, and practice along with a headshot. YOU could be among the first to be introduced to our international audience. Submit to rharriet@gmail.com.

Equality Statement

Earlier this month, you received a special copy of the AST Equality Statement written by President Eunice Stagg and edited by Dr. Barbara Turner. The response has been overwhelmingly positive with many members embracing the statement with enthusiasm.

Thank you, Eunice, for your thoughtful and meaningful words. The statement will be available on the new website.
